Let The Good Times Roll

Kris Dawson was September's centerfold for Car and Driver Magazine.

Mr. VanderVoort prepares his Undies to carry on the tradition of losing the Powder Puff game.

Making the quest for the dome even sweeter is Deanne Stevenson.

Spartie begins his campaign for the 1984 Presidential election.

The pride, honor and joy of being Homecoming King and Queen are shown by Andy Shinrock and Lisa Lusk and their parents. Accompanying them are Mary Boone and her father and former queen Jeanine Jereck.

Part time hair dresser Cathy Brandi is disgusted by Romantics' drummer Jimmy Marino's split ends.

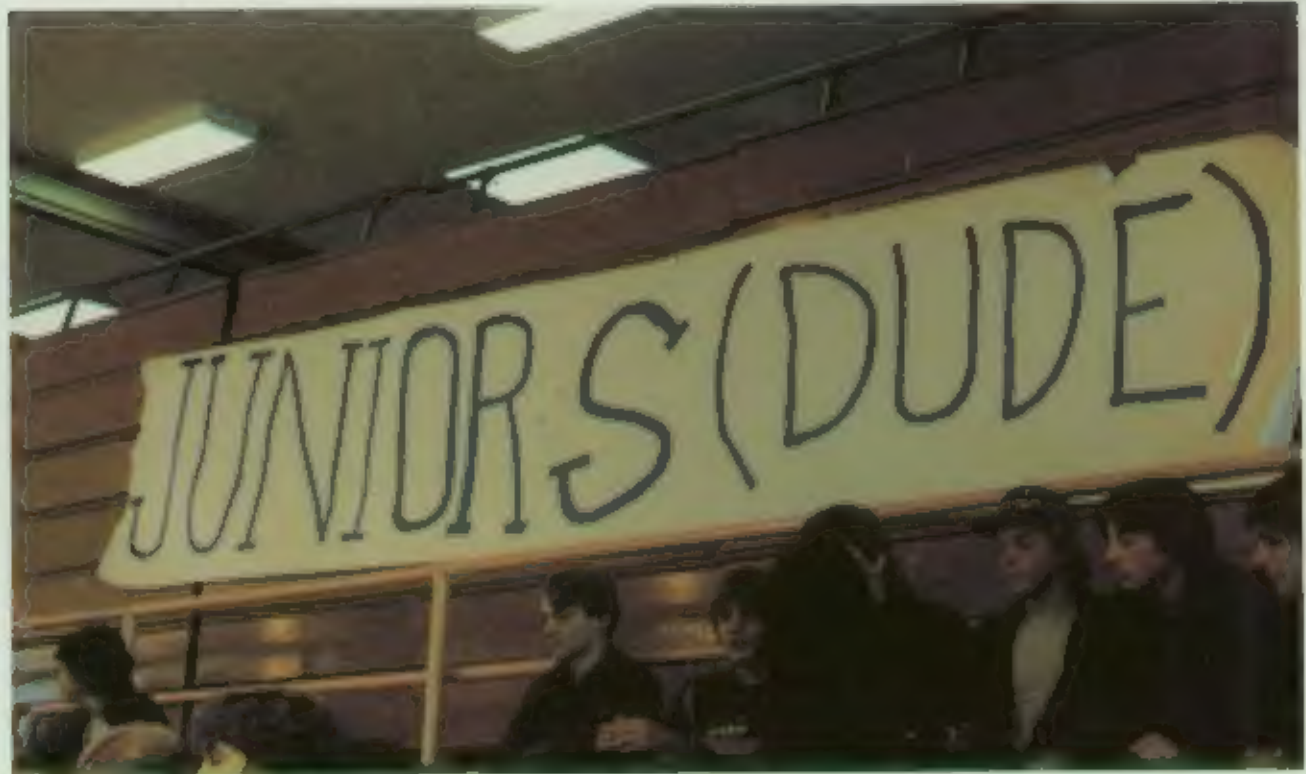

Corie Stahl and Todd Maddox fight the savage crowds on their way to class.

The Fantasy band "Can't Stop the Music" once they get started.

Juniors try to prove that they have a wide range vocabulary.

Pom Pon girls Gina Randle, Missy McArthur, Chris Noga, and Holly Clark brave the cold during their halftime routine.

Dan Bentz masters his secretarial skills and ruins his nails while working in the Guidance office.

Popeye, Dave Domenico, and Olive Oyl, Lisa Elizondo, go in search of spinach at Fantasy.

As their defense weakens, Kalamazoo Central realizes they're headed for defeat.

L.H.S. Fight Song

Cheer, cheer for Dear Lakeview High
We'll make the echoes ring from the sky.
Victory'll be ours in the fight,
Root for your team with spirits bright.

Lakeview's pride — "Rock of Ages."

The first day after getting rid of his training wheels, Pat Morris rides his bike to school.

Fling out your banners, hold them high
Fight, fellows, fight, for victory is nigh,
Lakeview, cast aside your blues,
And smile if you win or lose.

Mr. Sweet's class is mesmerized by the sound of a leaky roof.

Preparing for a career in the N.F.L. are Ron Clayman, Doug Jones, Scott Gremore and John Prell.

Trev Clark would rather look for his sweetie in the stands than pay attention to the game.

The quest for the dome was evident from wall to wall during November.

Sax players Rich Smith, Todd Robbins, Steve Hommerding, and Matt Scarbrough keep in step during a sixth hour rehearsal

There was never a dull moment at the Homecoming dance for Scott Hulbert, Duane Denniston, Todd Moore, Cora McKay, Stacey Judd and John Haffenden

Windows in the art room are annually decorated to show the holiday spirit

Smile! Chris Pitchure's got you on candid camera

Fight, Spartans, you're bound to win.
We've never seen a team that has been
So loyal, brave and fair and true
So come on, team, and pull us through!

Purple and white are flying above,
Purple and white, the colors we love
Always keep them on the top,
And don't let the spirit drop.

Running to score another 6 for the senior team is Pam Steinbacher

Wave dancers Brian Breisch and Wesley Brown dazzle at Fantasy

The Student Service Center is the site for a rather suspicious meeting between Mrs. Day, Stacy Farhat and Sherie Ritzler

Third hour munchies have Peggy Coleman and Brian Mr. Phelps for a canby bar

Scott Stevens and Tim Speer both ask themselves "Is he paying for my dinner?"

ACTIVITIES

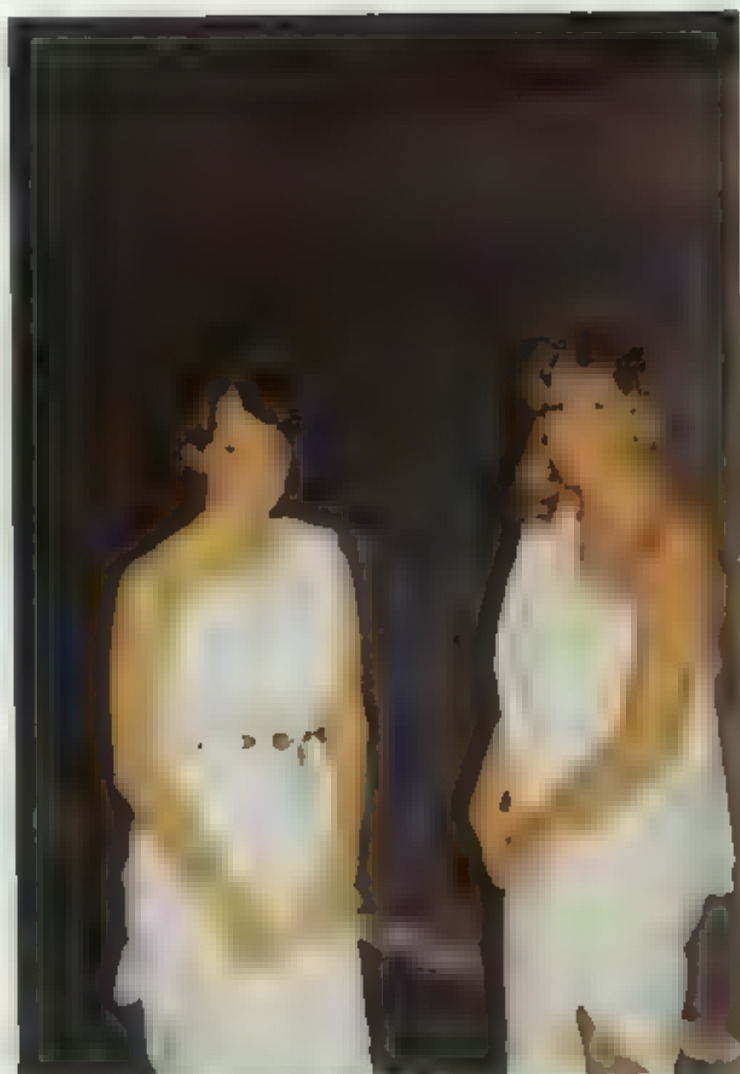

"People Are Strange"

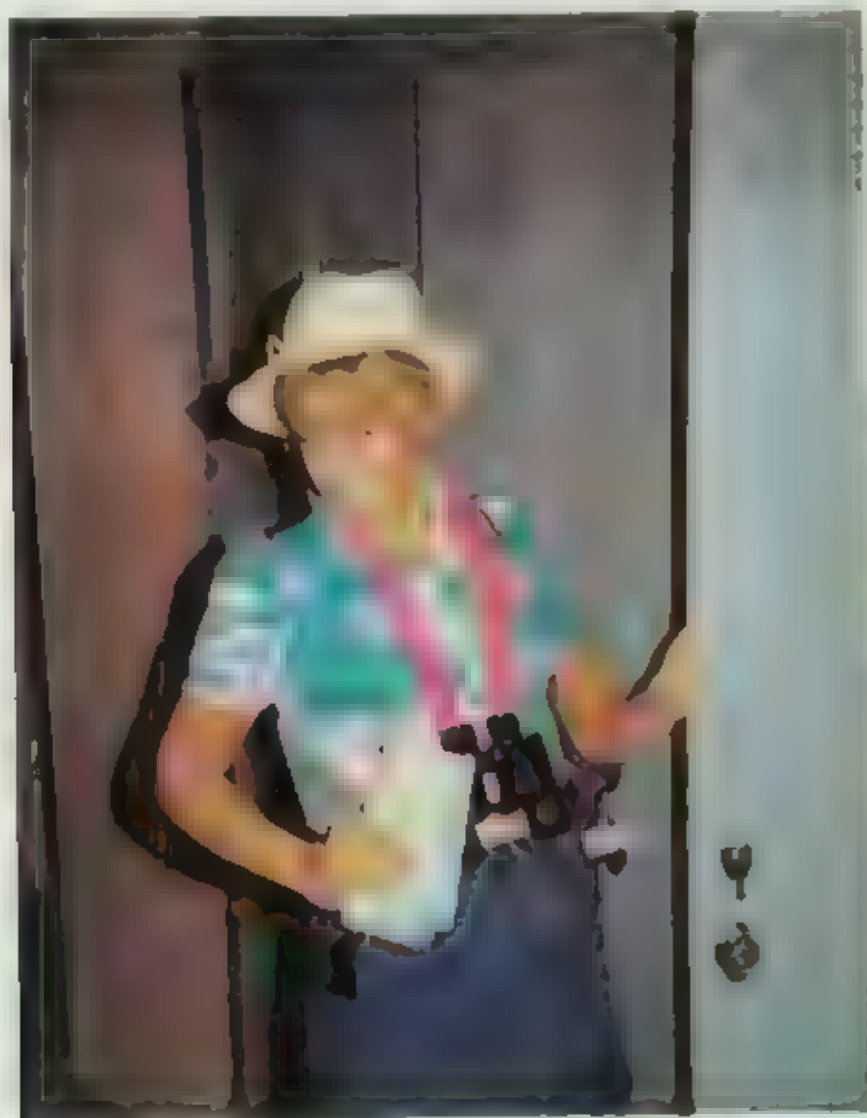

Homecoming '83 began with the annual Dress Up Days. Sweat Day generated lots of spirit along with Tourist, Class Color, Toga, and, of course, to top things off, Purple and White Day. — PG

Looking like typical tourists, Andu Shirock and Steve Thomas try to pick up the sexy LHS beach bunnies.

Waiting for their dates, Josh Ball and Cathy Brandt dream about their date with Julius Caesar and Mark Antony.

"Needing It Bad," Kristin Koth prepares for Florida.

Head n' out the door because they can't take it anymore. Suzi Squiers and Karen Frank move toward the gym and the Class Games.

"Games People Play"

Marie Webster thinks the mummy wrap is even more fun than toilet papering trees as she races around Henry Hartseice

The contestants prepare for the start of the next event

Field Day is always an occasion that everyone looks forward to, and this year was no exception. The banana eat, pudding slurp, and mummy wrap were some of the main events that helped bring a victory to the juniors. The seniors captured an overall second place; however, their "BREW CREW" cheer won them a first and provided them with a slogan for their last year at LHS. — KD

"You Make Me Feel Like Dancing"

Ann Jereck, Rieger Lesow, Liana Johnson and Pam Steinbaker come to the dance with high spirits and ready to have a good time.

Feelings ... who ... feelings ... Lakeview's favorite couple, Mark Gibbs and Lori Cook sit out this dance.

The Homecoming Dance was a great success. Hydra performed from 9:30 to 12:00 and the students, faculty and chaperones tripped the light fantastic. — PG

Taking a breather from the heavy action on the dance floor, John Hausman and Elizabeth Winslow chat the night with friends.

Prepared and ready to go, a group of seniors and juniors get last minute tips from Denny Terrio of "Dance Fever".

"Fantasies" take audience on tours

The 1984 Fantasy came with a pleasant change of pace. For the first time in several years, it was held in the winter. With the title "Wish You Were Here," the show's theme was vacationland fantasy. Tour guides (emcees) Keith Faber and Mike Butler led the cast and audience on a voyage of a lifetime.

The show was highlighted by numerous skits and musical numbers. Once again the show came off perfectly thanks to tri-directors Mrs. Nancy Trowbridge, Mr. Carl Moore, and Miss Ellen Harvey, as well as the little recognized, hard-working stage and technical crews.

— KF

Bringing their usual professionalism to the show, the Fantasy Band jazzes it up

Aqua Sprites show "Synchronicity"

Flights of Fancy was the theme for this year's Aqua Sprite show. The music selected somehow related to the idea of flight, either emotionally, allegorically or directly.

The team consisted of 28 girls under the direction of head coach Laura Culver and assistant coach Shug Brandell.

Soloist and captain Kris Dawson danced and swam to "What a Feeling" from the movie "Flashdance." Seniors Beth Ball, Linda Egland and Laura DeVries performed a trio to "Fly Away."

A swim board was established consisting of Shelly Russell, Jeanna Massa, Beth Ball, Linda Egland and Laura DeVries. Their duties were to help the coaches and the captain.

Aside from a few minor errors the show came off a great success both nights May 4 and 5. KD

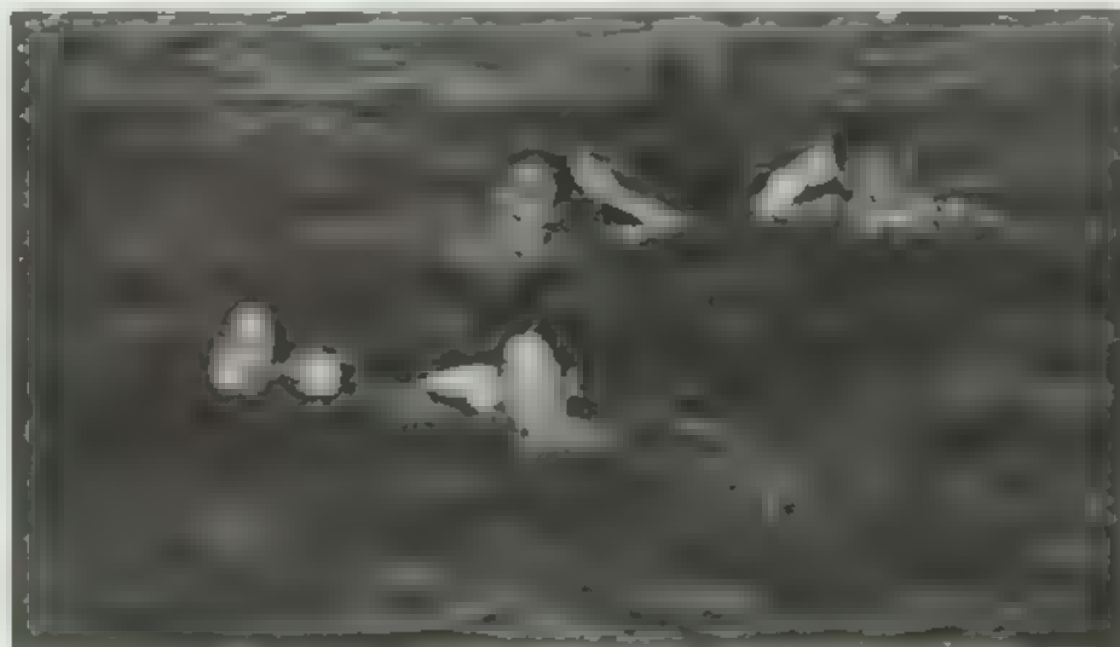

Teresa Basso, Amy Godfrey, Helen Hallquist, Melanie King and Heidee Perry perform to "On the Wings of Love."

Taking flight during her set is Kris Dawson.

The entire team gives it all for the finale.

Walt Disney himself would have been proud to see Melanie Krans, Jennifer Oakes, Chris Noga and Chrissie Hines swim to "Peter Pan."

Dressed as Red Barons, the 12 most experienced girls swim in the opening number.

Sunning instead of practicing are Linda Egland, Laura DeVries and Tracy Shear.

Can you guess that this trio is Kris Dawson, Shelly Russell and Holly Clark?

Lakeview journeys to "Oklahoma"

Directors Judy Douglas, Phil Bauman, and Larry Nye brought the popular musical "Oklahoma" by Rodgers and Hammerstein to our auditorium on April 27 and 28. With only five seniors in this production, a great deal of talent is left behind for future musicals.

Lakeview's band is "Stepping Out" for a good time

With their impeccable precision and blend of unique style, the bands dazzled the crowds at the many events in which they participated.

The Marching Band appeared in such events as the Homecoming Parade and the M.S.B.O.A. Marching Festival, where they received top first division rating in class A. The season climaxed with the play-off performances in Grand Rapids and the Silverdome Band-O-Rama concert in November.

The Jazz Band performed per usual in the Fantasy. The Symphonic Band performed in the Winter and Spring Concerts, plus the Memorial Day Parade and at Commencement. The Concert Band appeared at two home football games and at two concerts and the Marching Band-O-Rama.

The band's dutiful officers were president, Walter Runkle; vice president, Dave Estes; secretary, Diana Patient; treasurer, Ramona Frost. The Flag Captain was Diana Patient. — CD

Undergoing a change this year, the Choral Department added Mrs. Nancy Trowbridge as director of the A Cappella and Spartanaires to fill in for Mrs. Avis Pontoni, who took a leave of absence. Mrs. Trowbridge brought with her many new ideas and techniques and added a new dimension to the music here at Lakeview.

The A Cappella performed at the Fall Concert, Christmas Concert, and Spring Concert and participated in the Southwestern Michigan Vocal Festival.

"I Don't Want A New Drug"

The first Drug and Alcohol Awareness Week was sponsored by the Lakeview Student Senate. Chairpersons of the committee were Keith Faber, Cassandra Derks and Mike Cuccaro

Dr. Robert Forney, Resident Toxicologist at the Medical College of Ohio in Toledo, spoke on the effects drug and alcohol have on the body. On Wednesday Santa Fe, a Jazz-Rock band, performed for the student body with the message "Living the Good Life" without alcohol and drugs. State trooper Bill Martin was here on Thursday with a panel of experts to conduct a question-answer session with no faculty present. Others on the panel were Russ Sampson, Jeff Kruithoff, and Patricia Woodall. To conclude the week, the slide presentation "Dreammaker" was shown on three 14-foot high screens, utilizing six projectors, with the message "Pursuit For Positive Values." — PG

Groups give it to you "Any Way You Want It"

During Christmas the Latin Club sold Pax In Terra buttons. All year they were responsible for keeping the foreign language bulletin board outside room B-6, and for the foreign language luncheon they put on the play "Amphitruon." The final project they engaged in was composing the book "Quidquid," which is translations of nursery rhymes, television show themes and popular songs. — PG

Latin Club members included Laura Roush, Jennifer Weglarz, Scott Finch and Michelle Martin with advisor Mrs. Mary Kruska. Missing: Janelle Durrett and Mike Oswalt.

The French Club held an initiation and hayride in the fall, as well as car washes. They participated in a cooking contest and went to Chicago for a weekend. Their big project was the annual Big Market and Fun Fair in March. — PG

French Club officers were Gina Randle, Jeff Sprick, Teresa Stringham and Lisa Lusk.

Rachita Reed, Tina Wichnal, Kyle Otten and Walter Runkle proudly demonstrate the sign they made to welcome new members Robin Catean and Dennis Durham.

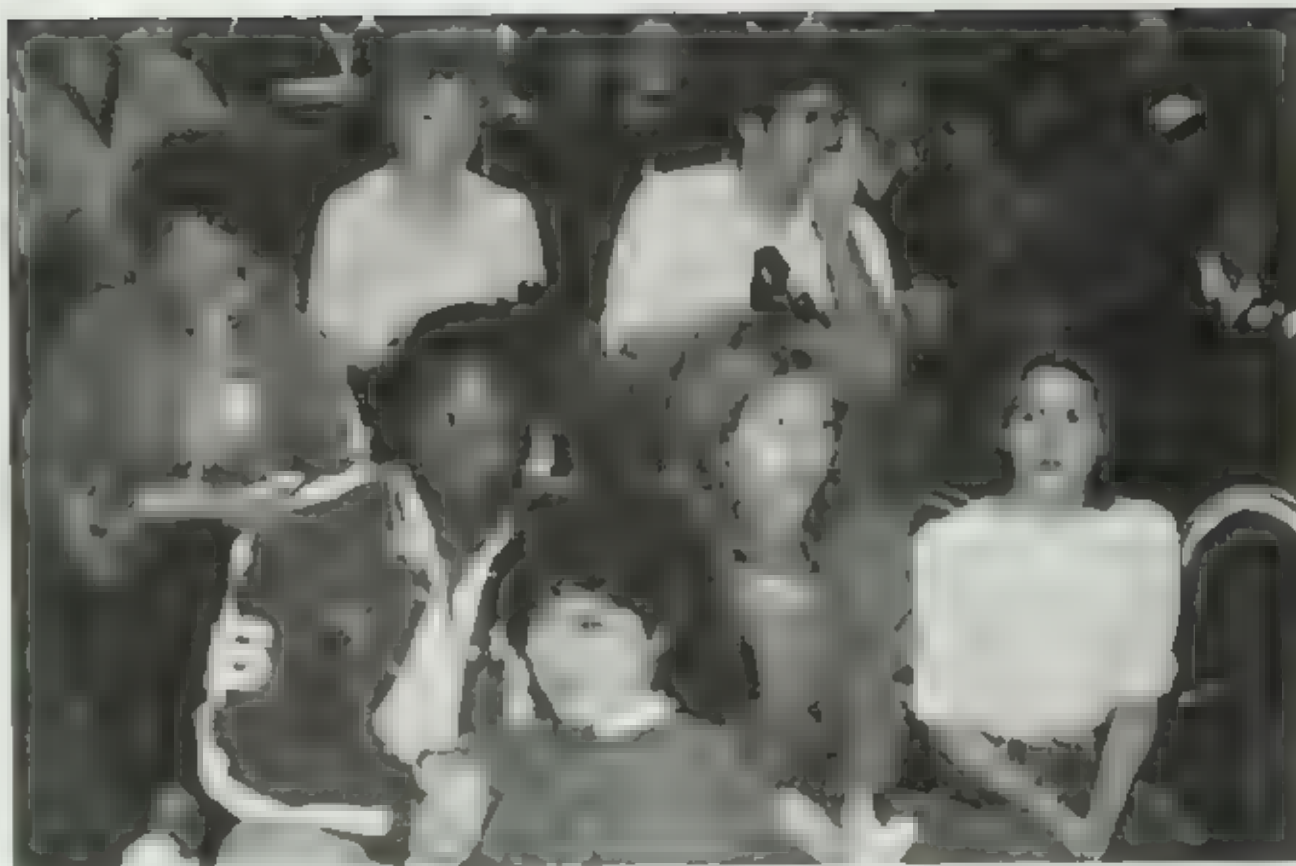

The National Honor Society was led by president Mark Kopelman, vice president Anne Ward, secretary Mindi Schaefer and treasurer Beth McCrae. The group focused their time on rewriting the induction rules and standards and on welcoming new members into the club.

The student listeners are a valuable asset to the student body here at Lakeview. They have a training session during the school year to learn how to communicate better with their peers. Listeners were Denise Eberhart, Shannon Swanger, Laura Amidon, Shawna Dingwall, Sara Ross, Ellen Gilmer and Sherie Ritzler.

Student Senate members are "Leaders of the Pack"

Shannon Swanger, Stacey Swartzle, Marie Webster and Kristi Schaefer represent our student body

The Student Senate is an organization that does a great deal for the students, faculty and the school in general. This year the Senate started out with Homecoming activities, car washes and dances. Christmas baskets were next on the agenda. They helped many needy people throughout the community with the gifts and food our students provided. The biggest event that the Senate supported and organized was Alcohol and Drug Awareness Week, which enlightened many students about the effects of drugs and alcohol.

Pride Week is the last school-related activity they sponsor after Student Senate and Class Officer elections for the following year.

The motto for the year says it best: "The few, the proud, the Student Senate working hard for you." — KD

Senator Mendi Schaefer and president Ann Jereck discuss some important details about the revision of the Senate Constitution.

The Pom Pon Corps, led by co-captains Kris Dawson and Mary Boone, held their place as usual at the Badgerette Camp at Albion, Mich. this summer. The squad finished the session with all seconds and was awarded "Most Improved Squad" for scores increasing daily. They also received a first place ribbon for their banner representing them, designed and painted by Larry Gardiner.

Senior Ramona Frost competed in the Miss Badgerette competition and finished second out of eight girls.

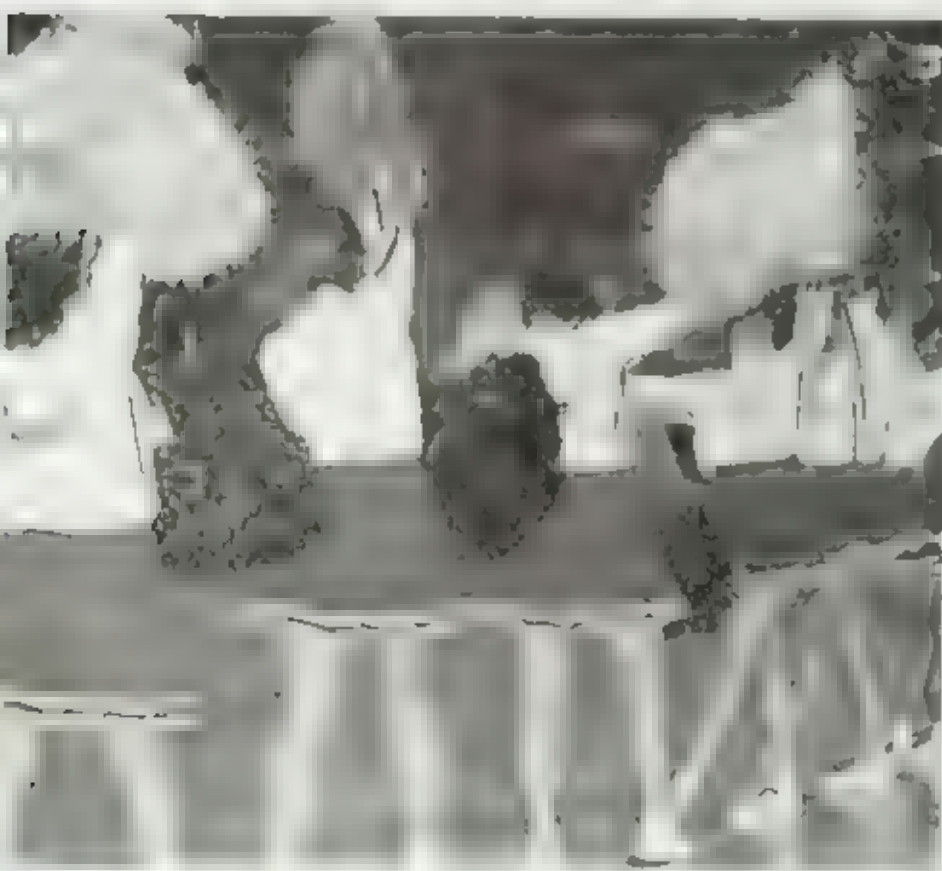

During the year, the girls performed at every home football game, both regional playoff games at Houseman Field and a final routine at the Pontiac Silverdome during half time of the Class B State Finals. They finished the year with home basketball games and one wrestling match, with routines such as "Talk to Ya Later" and "Cum On Feel the Noise." Cheerleading Squads

"Jump Shout Boogie"

This year's cheerleaders, led by captains Lori Cook and Lisa Lusk, had an active season. After a long search, Mrs. Marcia Pechota advised the group until her resignation, after which Mr. and Mrs. Gary Beard took over the job.

During football, they led the crowd in supporting our team in a glorious season, highlighted by being able to play and cheer in the Silverdome. Other spirit-raising activities during football included marching in the Homecoming parade and making locker signs, banners, pillow cases and home signs.

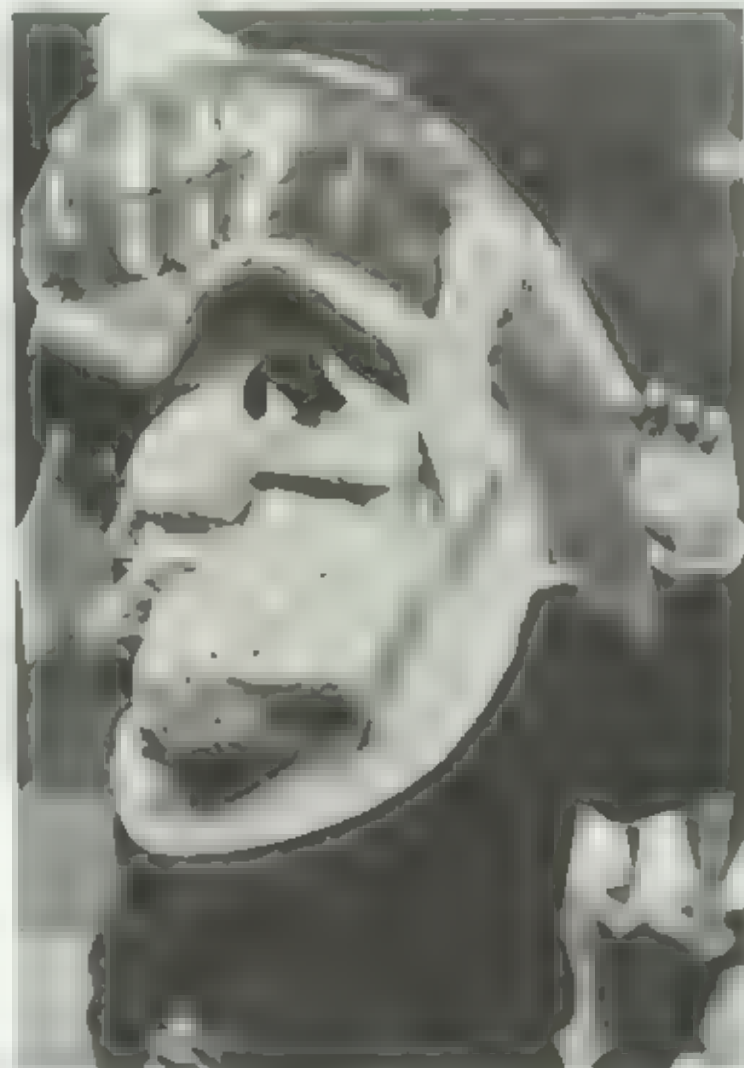

In basketball, again they led fans in team support, as well as making locker signs and decorating lockers for districts. — JE

Featuring Shawna Dingwall, vice president, Lisa Lusk, president, Ramona Frost, treasurer, Peggy Gronewold, secretary

The Song is Over. Our album has ended. We will now go our "Separate Ways." Our four years here at Lakeview will fade into memories as we begin to make new ones. We will each choose a new album to play, a new direction in our lives. As we start to reestablish ourselves, we will always have our high school memories to look back on. Charlene Dorais — "Girl on Film"

Charlene Dorais has an avid interest in modeling. She has modeled for local merchants and for the Battle Creek Junior League.

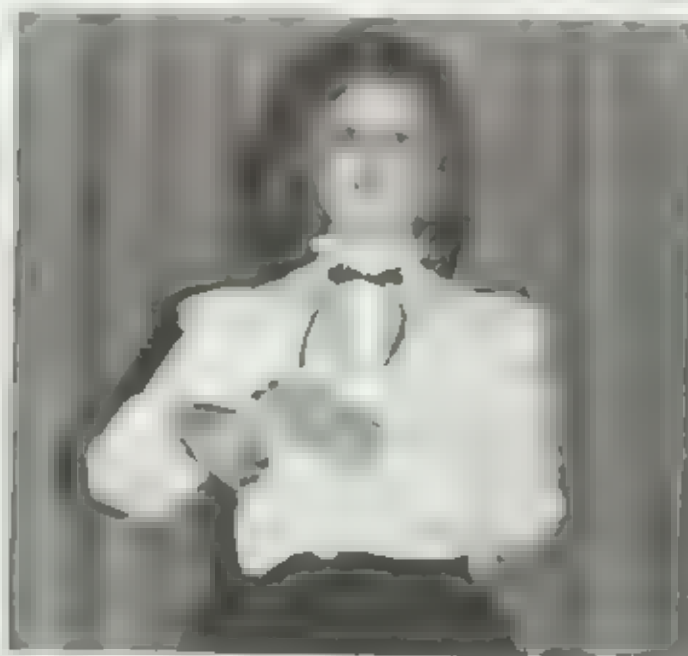

In a 17-week advanced course at Austin's in Lansing, Char learned different walks and set-ups in modeling. The students practiced commercials and learned the correct procedures. Char loves to put on all the makeup for the photography sessions. "Modeling is a lot of fun. You meet interesting people," laughingly says Charlene, who hopes this training will lead her to a serious career in modeling. — CB

Kim Lawyer breaks "The Sounds of Silence"

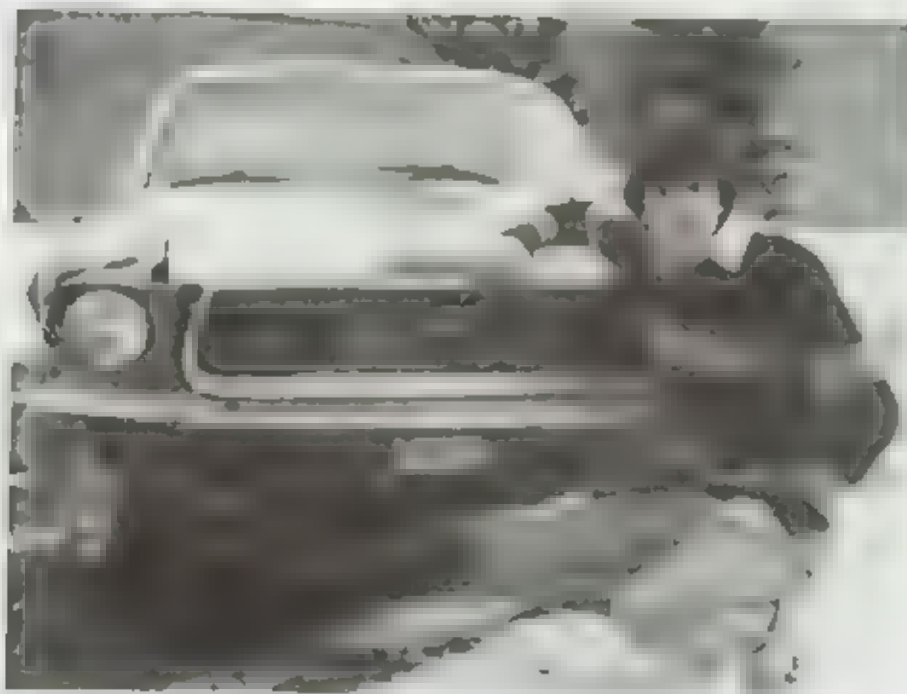

Kim Lawyer has been actively involved with the deaf since she was 12 years old and saw a woman interpreting for the hearing impaired in her church.

She has since interpreted for eight cantatas and several services. She has also signed for other occasions at her church like the America Festival in 1981 and for meetings of a milk substitute company called Meadow Fresh. She has been called by the Battle Creek Police Department, and her name is available at Community Hospital if her interpreting services are needed at any time.

Kim plans to sign for other activities at her church and anywhere else that her services may be needed. — SS

Rob Barnard rebuilds a "Little Red Corvette"

Rob Barnard builds cars as a self-taught hobby. When he was 15, Rob bought a Corvette whose front end had been demolished by a truck. By working 12 hours a day, five days a week for three months, he restored this 1975 Corvette to fantastic condition.

After he rebuilds a car, he usually sells it and puts the profit into his next project. He also has worked on restoring a 1965 Mustang which will be a collector's item when finished.

Rob says this is just a hobby and not something he wants to do professionally. — CD

"Paper Back Writer" interests Lori Sunie

"Willa Cather's descriptive style and great writing ability have made her parallel to Hemingway — although she doesn't get half the recognition." This is just part of what Lori Sunie enjoys about Miss Cather's literature.

She first became interested in Miss Cather's work as a sophomore at Olivet High School when she read one of her books for a report. Since then she has been very interested in all of her books, poetry and essays.

While at Olivet, Lori wrote a term paper about Miss Cather which won her first prize in a literary contest. She collects stories about her favorite author from magazines and owns all of her books. She has had some of her poems framed and awaits the arrival of a pillow with a picture of Miss Cather printed on it. Lori also hopes to acquire some of the rare stamps and coins picturing the author that have been discontinued.

During the summer of 1983 a three-day seminar was held in Wisconsin about Willa Cather that Lori was unable to attend because of a conflict. — PG

Bruce Brevitz comes on the ice like "Fire and Ice"

Who is that masked Canadian on skates? Could it be Bruce Brevitz? Yes, it is, but why?

Bruce has achieved the status of being known as one of the foremost junior hockey players in the area. Bruce did not just walk out on the ice and become a star. He got there by hours and hours of painstaking hard work.

He became interested in hockey when he was about seven, when he and a friend went with parents to see the Kalamazoo Wings play. From just being interested, he started playing unorganized hockey on area ponds and lakes. When junior hockey came to our area, Bruce joined that organization.

The hockey season officially begins in November, but pre-season practice starts in August and the year runs until March. During his season, Bruce has three practices downtown a week, one being at 5:30 a.m. when ice rental prices are cheaper. That takes dedication! — KF

Larry Buys, prepared to take your "Photograph"

Larry Buys has been collecting antique cameras for just over two years. His hobby started when he saw an old camera at a garage sale, which is where he gets most of his cameras.

He now has 14 cameras, the oldest being 73 years. His collection is valued at about $250, but to him it's priceless. Larry has purchased a couple of his cameras right here at school.

His favorite camera is his oldest. It's a Kodak Autographic, which means after you take the picture you can open a little door in the back and write on the film. When the picture is processed, the writing will appear on the picture.

Another favorite camera of Larry's is his Magestic. It's a simple camera made in the early 1940's. The uniqueness of this camera is that it gives two pictures in the space that a regular camera would get only one picture.

Larry finds camera collecting a unique and fascinating hobby — one that could interest all types of personalities and that he will always enjoy doing. — LD

Many seniors are "Feelin' Satisfied" with achievements

Lakeview's DAK Award winner of the Year is Mary Kott.

Lakeview's Boys' State and Girls' State representatives were Stephen Longval and Gary Charles.

Sue Nanos and Andy Campbell were named Athletes of the Year

Sue earned two letters in basketball and volleyball and three in track. She was a member of the All-City teams in basketball and volleyball. She was also All-Region and All-State in the latter. She will play for Eastern Kentucky University on a volleyball scholarship next year.

Andy earned six letters — two each in football, basketball, and baseball. He was voted All-City in football and basketball. He earned All-Conference and All-State honors in football. His future plans are undecided at this time. — CB

Scholastic Athletes of the Year are Beth McRae and Tom Weller.

Beth has earned four varsity letters — two in basketball and two in softball. She received the Sportsmanship Award this year in basketball and is tri-captain of this year's softball team. She has maintained a 3.975 G.P.A. in a challenging college prep program. She will be attending Michigan State University in the fall.

Tom has earned seven letters — three in track, two in basketball and two in football. He received the Most Improved Award this year in basketball. He was named to the All-City and All-Conference football teams. With an excellent G.P.A. of 4.0, he will enter the School of Engineering at U of M next fall. — CB

Seniors become "Illegal Aliens" in Canada

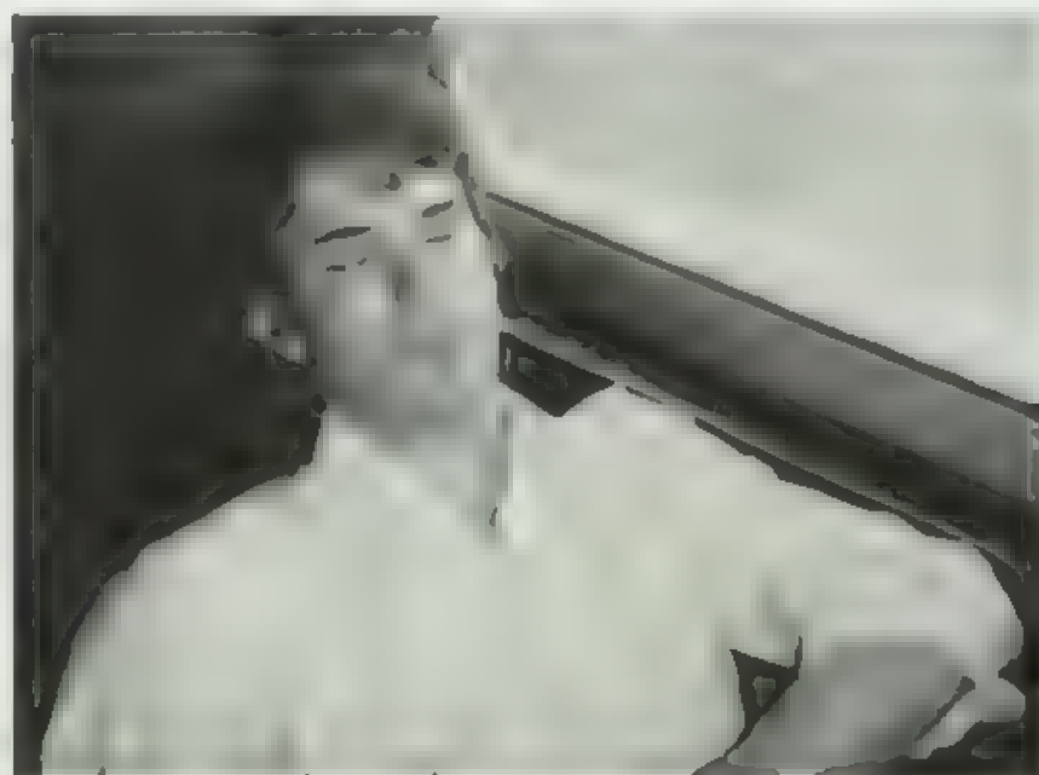

For four days and three nights 33 of Lakeview's seniors took their Senior Trip to Toronto with Mr. Tom Phillips and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvey. While in the city they went shopping, saw the Casa Loma, attended both "Funny Girl" and "The Mouse Trap." Highlights of the trip were Nick Esselman and Randy Jenkins being made up, going to Cherry's Bar, buying clothes at the Goodwill, and a three mile taxi ride for "Three dollars or three kisses." — PG

In Quebec students learn the "French Connection"

In May, eight students were rewarded for their hard work and determination during their four years of French classes by traveling to Quebec for a week. They traveled with French teacher Judy Butler, and her sister Maren Waksmundski, who was referred to as "Tati."

They visited the Citadella, the Chateau Frontenac, the Plains of Abraham where they picnicked, and they spent a day at the high school of their pen pals with whom they've been communicating since September. — SS

Seniors "Celebrate" on graduation day

"This is the first day of the rest of your life" was the quote that graduating seniors heard and contemplated Sunday, June 3 — Graduation Day.

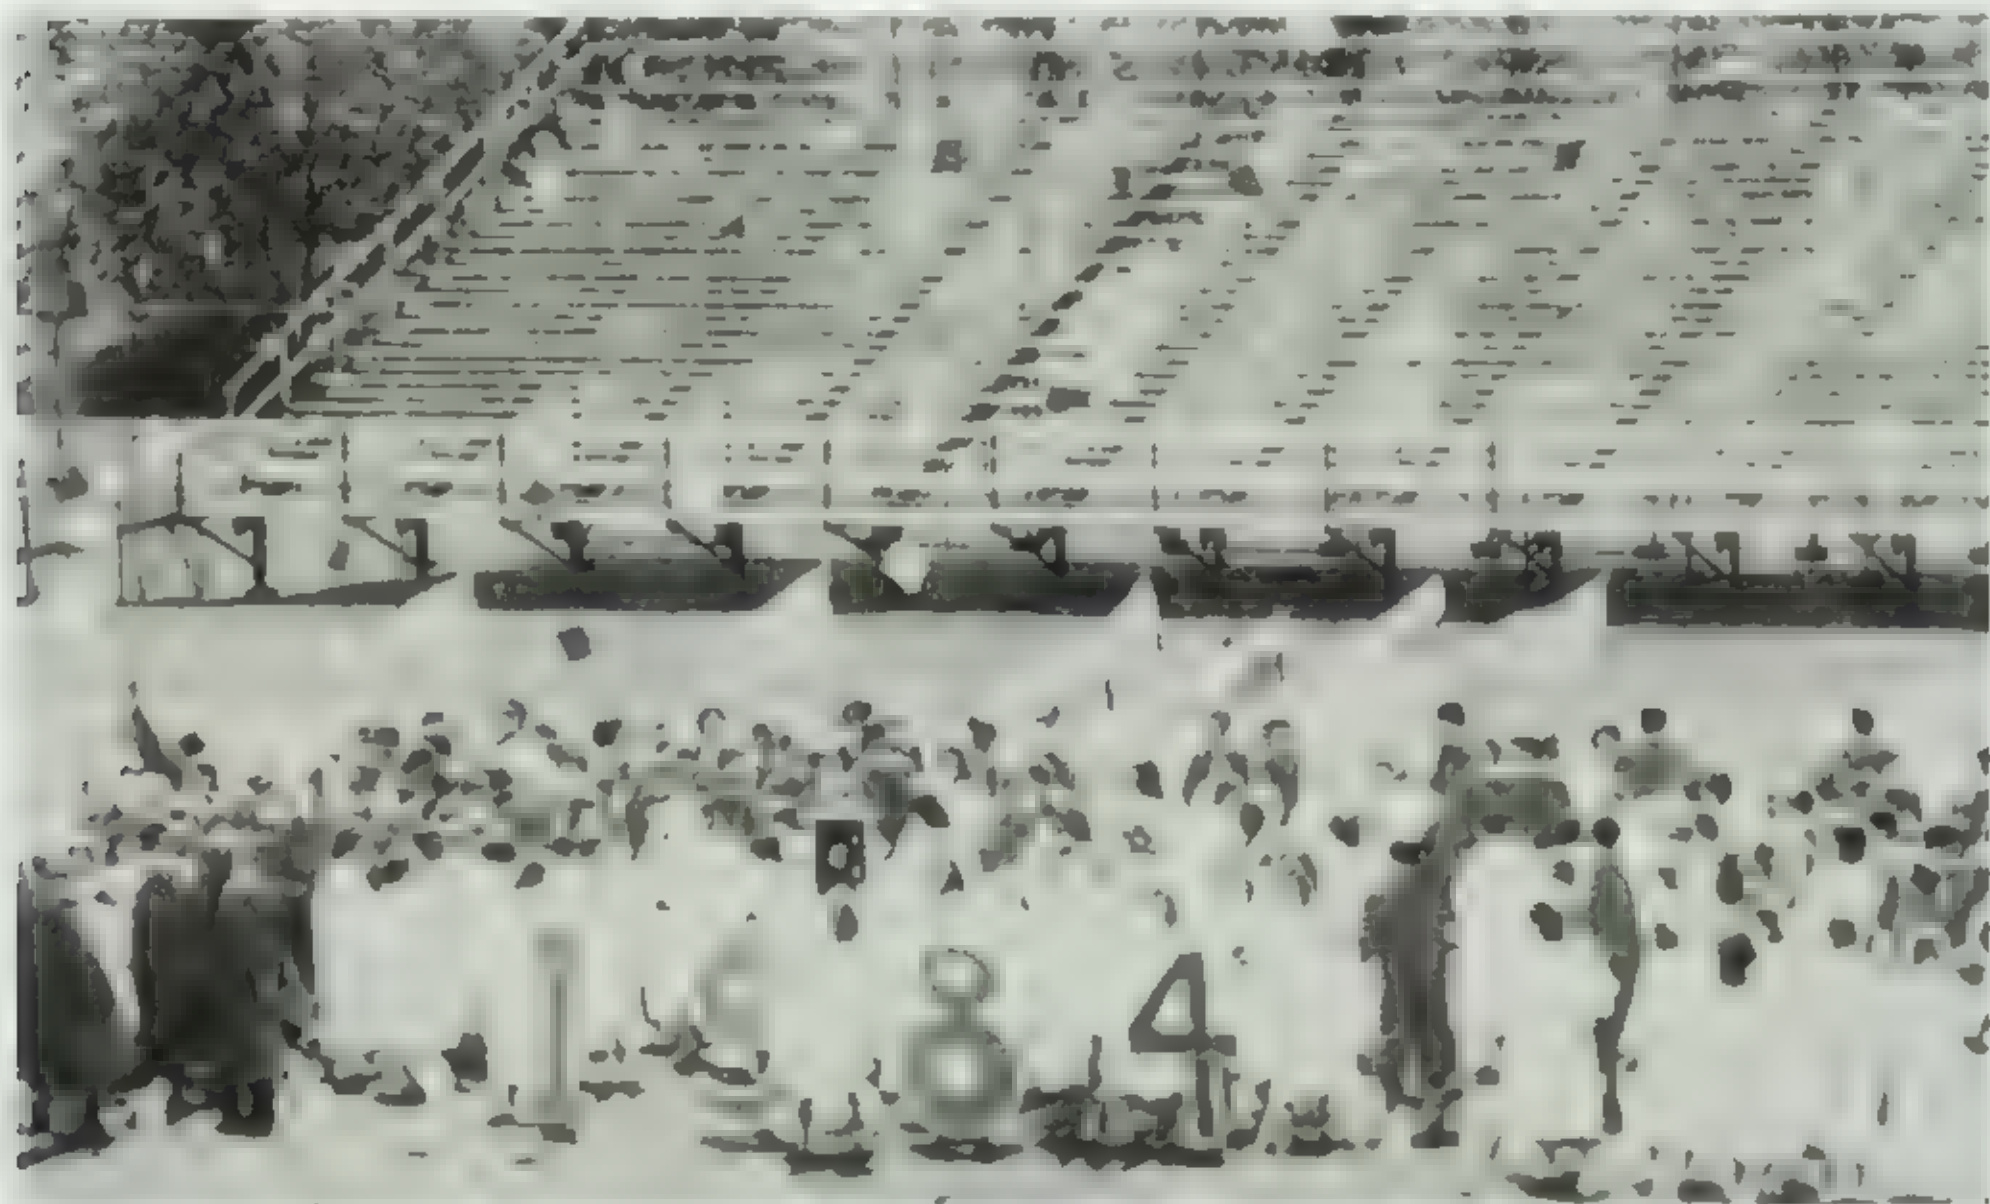

Lisa Lusk was the student speaker, and counselor Thomas Bommersbach was chosen from the faculty to speak. He inspired students, colleagues and parents to fulfill dreams, set goals and never stop trying.

Dr. Charles Seifert received the "Distinguished Alumni Award," which is given to an outstanding citizen of Battle Creek.

As Commencement ended, students headed off the field with tears in their eyes, smiles on their faces, hats flying, and heavy celebration on their minds. — KD

"HAVE YOU SEEN JUNIOR'S GRADES?"

Starring Mike Kidder, president, Larry Gardiner, secretary, Kim Hollman vice president, Dave Domenico, treasurer

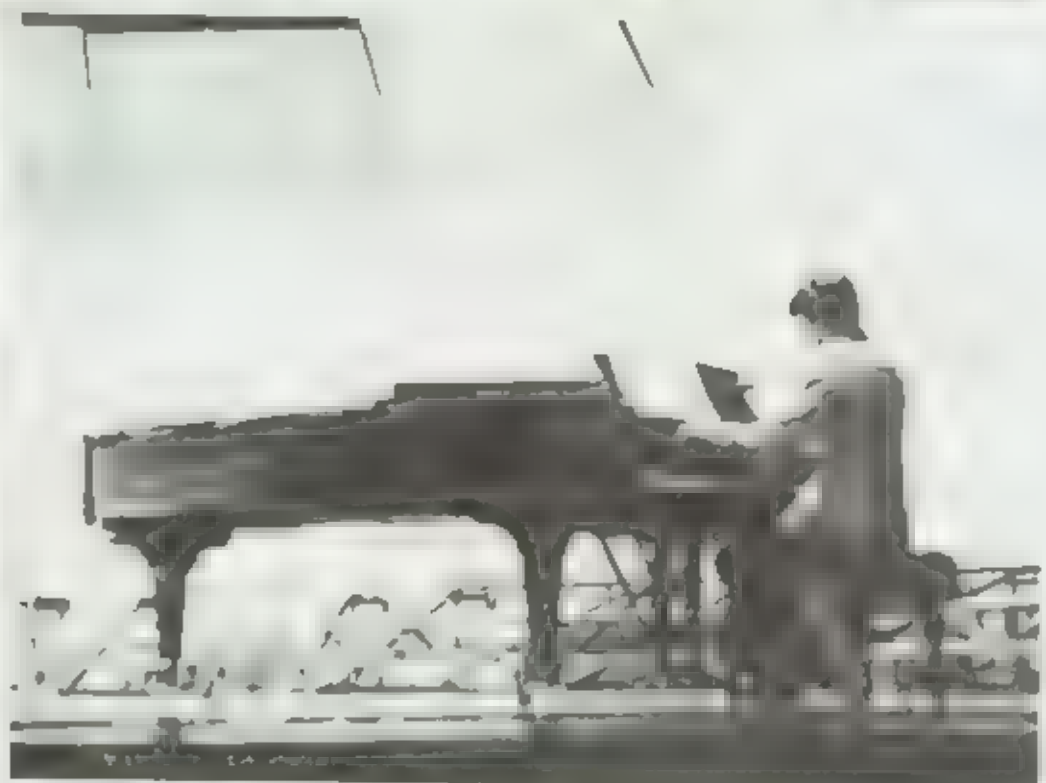

As we turn our album over, we get a glimpse of the juniors. They have shown us what they stand for and adjusted to their life as high school students. They can see the end of the album approaching and realize that soon it will be their turn to lift the needle and go on. In the meantime, they keep moving as the beat goes on and on.

Richard Rinearson, the next "Major Tom"

The purpose of Civil Air Patrol is to help young people from ages 13 to 18 learn about military customs, courtesies and history, which make up part of the leadership program. In the other part they learn about aircraft, communications and weather in the Aerospace program.

Richard Rinearson has been in CAP for three years and has reached the rank of captain. He is also the Squadron Commander of his unit. He sees that the people in the unit get the training and experiences needed to go through the program.

Richard notes that there are advantages for those involved in CAP. As the cadets advance through the program and reach the rank of officer, they receive an award named for Billy Mitchell. If they wish to join the Air Force, they would be able to do so as airman first class instead of at the bottom of the ranks. They also receive an E-3 pay rating instead of the starting pay of an E-1 rating. — DH

Suze Humiston tries out for the "Spandau Ballet"

Suze Humiston has been taking ballet lessons since the age of three. Once mastering the techniques and finally the gracefulness, Suze moved on to bigger and better things.

At age ten, she indulged in a new form of ballet called pointe. The equipment is different— toe shoes rather than plain leather ballet slippers. Also, it takes more muscle control than regular ballet.

Of the two, Suze says, "I like toe much better than ballet because of the constant challenge. I have always thought that toe is much prettier and more gracefully performed than flat shoe ballet."

Suze is currently enrolled in two classes at Kalamazoo Ballet Arts and is a member of Ballet Michigan Ensemble, commonly called The Company, which is made up of the 12 best dancers in the school.

Dancing takes up much of Suze's time, but she feels the hard work pays off. — KD

Rainer Swamy is "Leaving on a Jet Plane"

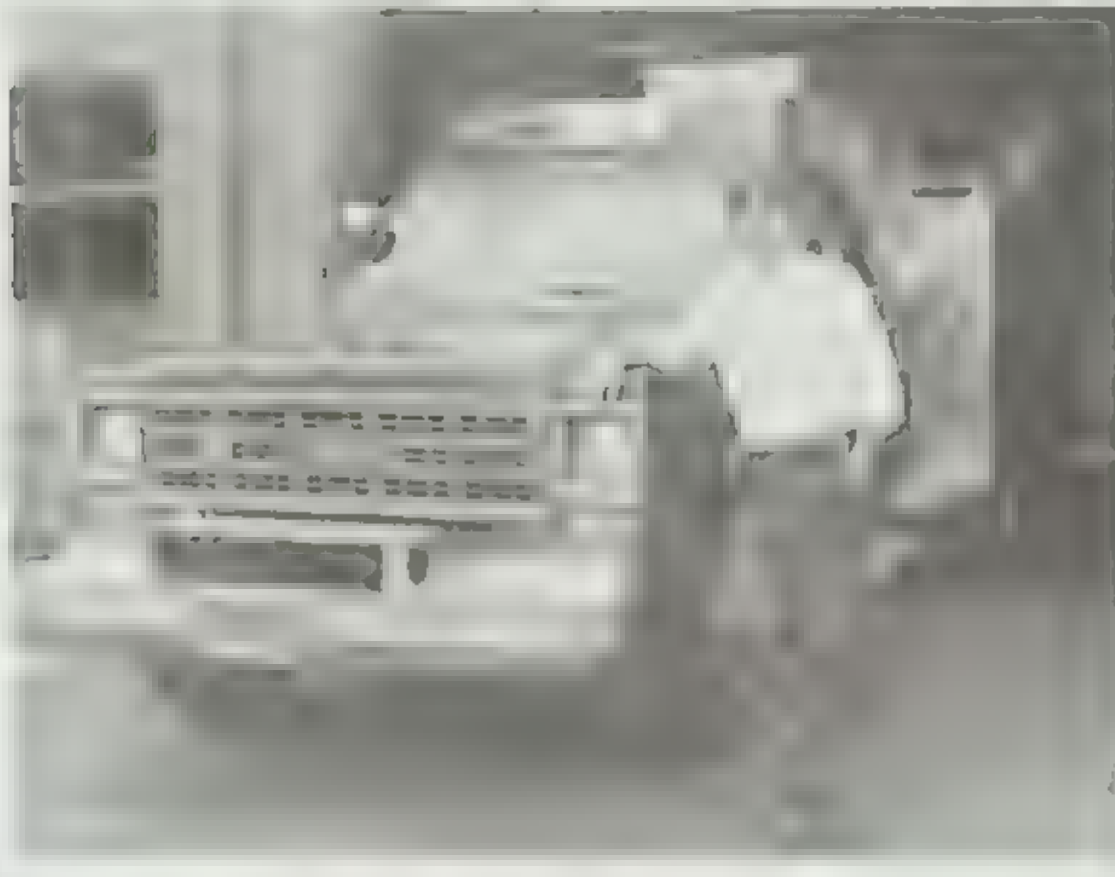

Rainer Swamy started taking flying lessons in November of 1982 and has been working since then to obtain his pilot's license in December 1983. His brother Edgar, a commercial pilot for Kal-Aero and Rainer's private instructor, got him interested.

Rainer flies Cessna 152's for an hour every weekend. Before he was able to go near the cockpit of a plane, he had to attend ground school to learn the basics of flying and emergency procedures.

Rainer says he's not really interested in flying for a major airline because it doesn't pay enough. What he really wants to do is get a helicopter license when he is older. — JE

"Come on Over and Save Me," Carl Gunderson

Carl Gunderson, an observer with the Cereal City Emergency Medical Service, started out as a dispatcher at Emmett Rescue Squad and is now riding in the ambulance.

He participates in an Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) class. He is able to assist the aide in doing certain procedures. The class meets for four hours every Monday and Thursday night and will enable him to become a licensed EMT, one step under a paramedic. As soon as he turns 18, Carl hopes to obtain a full-time job with CCEMS. — TC

Sandy Traister proves "She's a Little Runaway"

America is in the midst of a fitness craze, and one way many people keep fit is by running. One person you've probably seen out jogging was Sandy Traister.

About five years ago Sandy took up running. She runs two to three miles a day during warm weather. It gives her a chance to keep fit and have some time alone.

At the age of 11, Sandy ran in her first competitive race, the Cereal City Run. "It was one of my easiest races. I was younger then and had more energy."

Since then she has run in the Bruin 10K, Leila Wellness 10K, and the Briarwood Run 10K, to name a few.

Sandy, who also participates in track, has five ribbons and two certificates to show for her many miles of effort. — BB

"You Can Do Magic," Drew Flickema

Drew Flickema's magic causes Kim Koning to rise and float in the air

Drew Flickema has the magic touch. Around age five, he discovered an interest in magic and has been learning tricks ever since.

The first of an uncountable number of tricks Drew has learned involved a toothpick and a handkerchief. After rolling the toothpick in the handkerchief, he would bend it in half until you hear the toothpick crack. Then, after unrolling the handkerchief, he would present the toothpick whole.

Since that first trick, Drew has learned many more sophisticated effects, such as levitation and disappearance of a girl, milk that vanishes and appears in a light bulb, and a pan of fire that changes to flowers.

Drew said that performing on stage and the applause are what appeal to him most about magic. A career in magic would be nice but hard. "I think I'll keep it to a hobby," he stated. — KN

Mike Cuccaro, Lakeview's "Smoke on the Water"

Mike Cuccaro started swimming in Berlin, Germany when he was six years old. At age ten he moved to America where he now swims for Lakeview's swim team during the winter and Battle Creek Swim Club during the summer.

His favorite events are the 200 and 500 freestyle, and occasionally he swims the I.M., which involves a combination of all the strokes.

In 1983 as a freshman, Mike qualified for the YM-CA Nationals held at the Swimming Hall of Fame Pool in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. He placed 50th out of about 100 swimmers.

Mike thinks he has a chance to get a swimming scholarship if he can continue to improve his times. His goal is to participate in the 1988 Olympics. — JE

Kris Beddingfield has her "Poetry in Motion"

Kris Beddingfield began to write poetry as an eighth grader, and her natural talent is what has continued to inspire her.

In 1983 Kris received a trophy for her poetry while attending a teen seminar. She submitted poems to "Say" and "Teen Power" and was paid for her work. She also had published a book of poetry entitled "A Token of My Collections" which she gave to 30 friends and family members.

Kris's favorite subject to write about is love, and many of her poems are religious in nature.

If past accomplishments are any indication of her ability, Kris should continue to do well in her competitions and we should all be reading her poetry very soon. — PG

Missy McArthur can "Dance the Night Away"

Dancing has been a part of Missy McArthur's life since she was very young. She also became active in gymnastics, but in the eighth grade she concentrated on dancing again because of a lack of gymnastic programs in the area. Missy, who is also on the pom-pom squad, has taken classes in tap, jazz, ballet and toe.

Her years of experience on her feet helped her become a teacher at Tina's Dance Center. She teaches kids from 3 to 12 years old in ballet, jazz and gymnastics. She enjoys being around the kids and watching them try to learn the different motions and steps. When asked what she disliked about teaching, Missy said, "When they start crying and yelling for their moms." — KD

Michelle Ferguson supplies "What the World Needs Now"

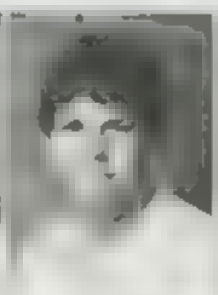

Michelle Ferguson pretends to be Sydney Stanton's patient

Numerous teens are involved in the Red Cross volunteer service. One of these dedicated volunteers is Michelle Ferguson.

Michelle began her services in eighth grade at the Provincial House in Marshall. Recently she transferred to Lakeview General Hospital and spends three hours every Thursday doing miscellaneous jobs. A few of these include admitting patients, delivering food trays and distributing flowers and plants to patients.

"This is a very responsible and rewarding job for teens even if they're not interested in a nursing career," states Michelle. — TC

CLASS of '87

"FAR FROM OVER"

Featuring: Sue Kiess, secretary, Shelly Stahl, president, Martha Mumford, vice president

Like a needle that falls on a brand new album, we don't know quite what to expect. Will we love what we hear? Will we absolutely detest it? Or will it fit right in with the rest of the music that we listen to? This brand new album can be compared to the Freshman Class. Will they fit right into the everyday life of Lakeview or will they stand out over other freshman classes? — PG

Laura Myers, a "Shining Star" of tomorrow

Not for quite a while has there been a freshman coming into Lakeview with as much future vocal potential as Laura Myers has. She has had active past experience in the performing arts, appearing in roles with the Junior Theater, the Civic Theater's production of "Oliver," Master Singers and "South Pacific." She was one of the only freshmen ever to have a solo in the "Fantasy."

Achieving excellence is not something one can arrive at without practice, and practice she has done — an average of five hours a week.

Laura is definitely a musical talent to watch over the next three years. — KF

Jennifer Weglarz is "Tied Up" in strings

Jennifer Weglarz is one of Lakeview's many musically-inclined people. A violinist for six years, she holds the position of third chair, first violin in the Battle Creek Area Youth Symphony Orchestra, a group she has been a member of for three years. She has also participated in the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp program for three years.

This year she has increased her musical talents by participating in band for the first time. She plays the oboe in the concert band and the F-trumpet in marching band.

Our school's musical program always benefits when people like Jennifer display their musical ability. — DH

Peter Woods keeps on "Swinging"

At ten years of age, Peter Woods began playing tennis. He continues practicing at Minges Creek Racquet Club and plays a match about once a week.

Peter has played in tournaments in Detroit, Ann Arbor and Lansing, just to name a few. He captured the runner-up spot at the Hastings Novice Tournament in 1983.

"It's fun when you're playing in tournaments and matches," commented Peter. He also feels that it keeps him in good shape, and he enjoys playing against great players.

In future years Peter will play for the Lakeview netters. He also wants to get involved in some regional tournaments in Kalamazoo. With his shock of blond hair, Peter Woods will certainly brighten whatever teams he plays for. — CB

Business Department is "Taking Care of Business"

The Business Department was kept very busy this year with the addition of $75,000 worth of equipment, consisting of new computers, word processors, dictation equipment and electronic typewriters. The purchases resulted from the millage passage. Donated by four Lakeview businessmen and the PSTO was an Apple II computer.

Chosen as the outstanding business student was Karen Burns. — JF

Social Studies looks at "The Way We Were"

The Social Studies Department was kept very busy this year. Their major goal, according to Mr Bob Brownlee, the department head, was to increase the graduation requirements. They accomplished this and much more as future students will be required to take World History for one year and also a whole year of Government

Other department activities included movies, guest speakers such as Howard Wolpe and Jack Lousma, and participating in Student Government Day with the city. They also sent 14 students to Washington, D.C. on Project Close-Up

"Blinded Me with Science" was students' cry

Science is a major part of every student's schedule at LHS. Many students have interests in the technological or research fields and to get a good base for college, they take many of the offered courses.

Some students from the Advanced Chemistry and Advanced Biology classes attended a science lecture series at the University of Chicago. "The lectures were an enriching experience and very interesting at the same time," commented junior John Emery.

"Music Makes the World Go Round"

The Music Department has many top music groups like Marching Band, A Cappella, Symphony Band, and Spartanaires which are performance oriented. Other music groups stress fundamentals, theory, and musicality. Top priorities are to build musical appreciation through performing of fine music of all kinds and to create self pride and confidence. Talented musicians are identified and encouraged to advance through solos and ensembles and through the pursuit of a career in music.

A little "Help" from our support staff

Our school has a group of people that work from the early morning hours until almost everybody has left the building. These people are dedicated to making our day the best it can be. They have all the guts and get none of the glory. Where would we be without the friendly ladies who make our terrific lunches? Without those great guys who are always cleaning up after us? Without the smiling secretaries in the office? Without the help of these behind-the-scenes people, we'd all be lost. We appreciate all they've done for us and all they have yet to do. — SS

We have been through some difficult financial times in Lakeview during the past several years. However, throughout this period our students have never failed in their continuing effort to put forth their best effort. Whether in academic achievement or in extra-curricular activities, the class of '84 has added to the excellent scholastic tradition and winning ways of Lakeview High School. Congratulations on a job well done! I am confident that with the same effort and commitment in the future that you exhibited for the past four years, the members of this class shall succeed, and we shall continue to be proud of you. Best wishes'

Sincerely,

"Tough Guys" challenge Pioneers at Silverdome

At the beginning of the year, if someone had said that the Lakeview Spartan football team was going to play in the Silverdome for the Class B Championship, you would have said, "Wrong." But when you're third in the state with an 8-1 record, first in the Big Eight Conference and second in Region I, how can you miss going to the playoffs?

Of the several highlights to the 1983 season, perhaps the greatest triumph was over the undefeated, state ranked Class A team Portage Central. The Spartans were down 13-0 in the first quarter and roared back to a 55-29 victory.

The same thing happened in the playoffs with the Spartans down 8-6 and 8-0 at halftime, but they came back to win 18-8 over Grand Rapids West Catholic and 21-15 over Durand, when Tom Weller plunged over the goal line to lead the Spartans to an overtime victory. This seemed to be the formula to the Class B championship game as well, when they were down 14-0, but the team just couldn't come back and suffered a heartbreaking 35-0 loss to East Grand Rapids at the Silverdome.

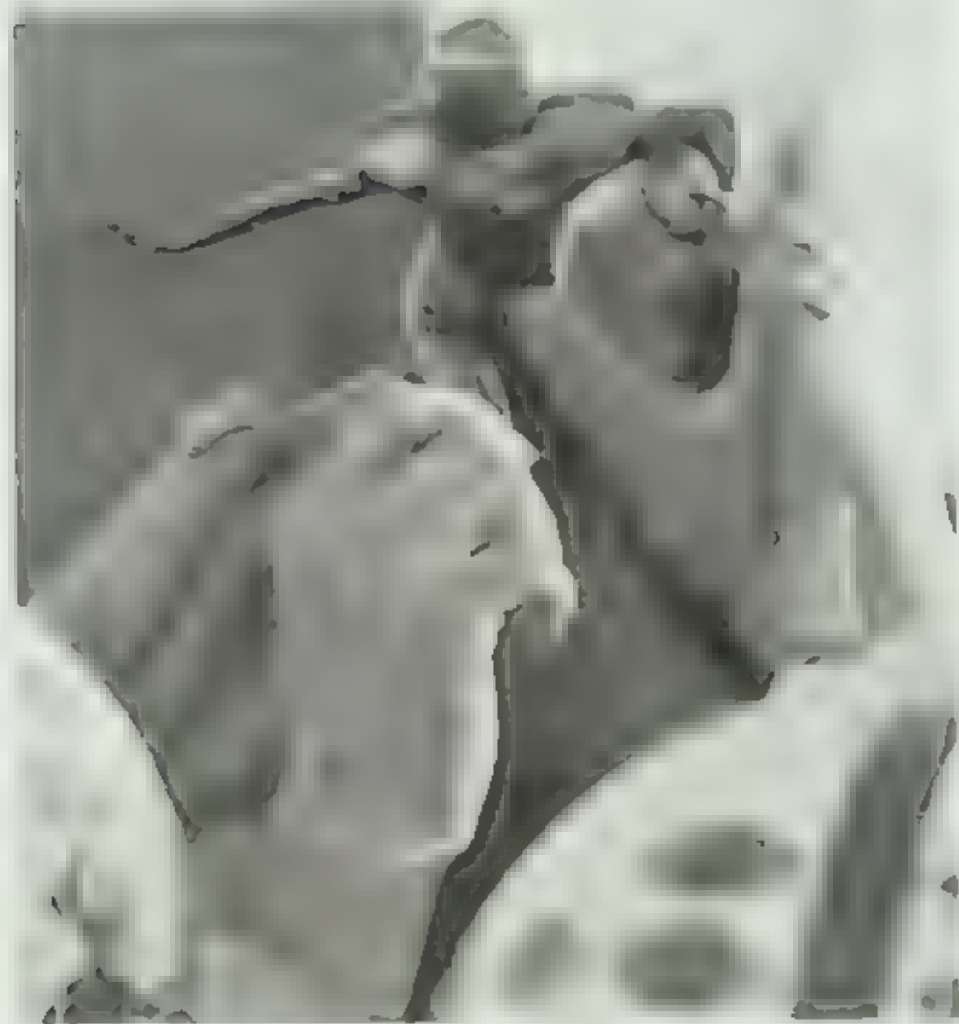

Led by tri-captains Weller, Andy Campbell and

Dan DeLano, the Spartans finished 10-2 overall. They are the first Battle Creek area team to gain 10 wins in a season, and the first to play in the Silverdome.

Lakeview had seven people named on the All-Conference team: Campbell, DeLano, Weller, Trev Clark, Darin Feasel, Mark Gibbs and Charlie Thomas. The second team included Jay MacDonald and Andy Shinrock. Honorable mentions were Nick Esselman and Brad Givens.

Lakeview also had a record-setting eight people on the All-City Team: Campbell, Clark, DeLano, Esselman, Feasel, Gibbs, Shinrock and Weller. All-City honorable mentions went to Givens, MacDonald, Thomas, Todd Baker and Carl Schuemann. Named to All-State by both the Detroit News and UPI was Clark and Campbell by the Detroit Free Press and UPI, with honorable mention going to Weller.

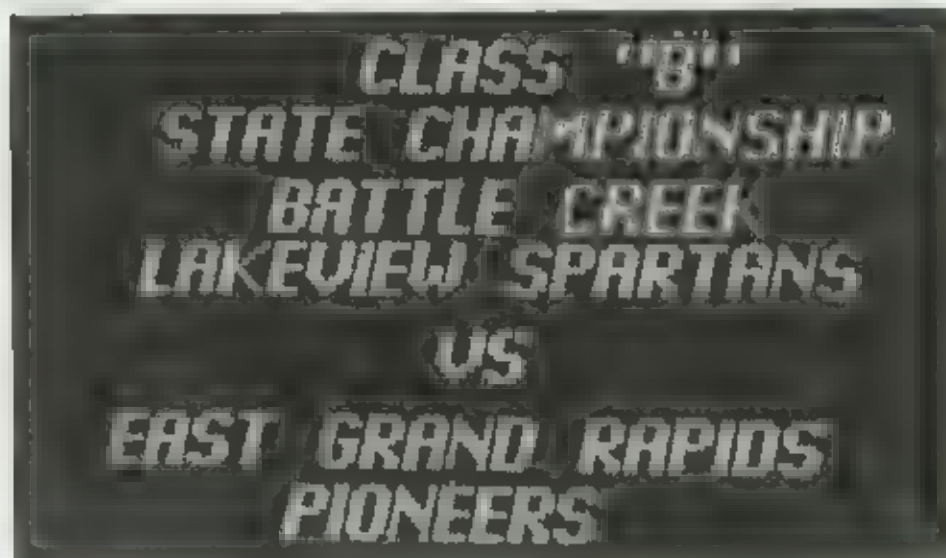

Special awards went to Campbell as Most Valuable player, Baker as Karl Randels Best Competitor, DeLano as T. N. Thomas Sportmanship, and Mike Kidder as scout team captain. — JF

"King of Pain" reigns for girls' swim season

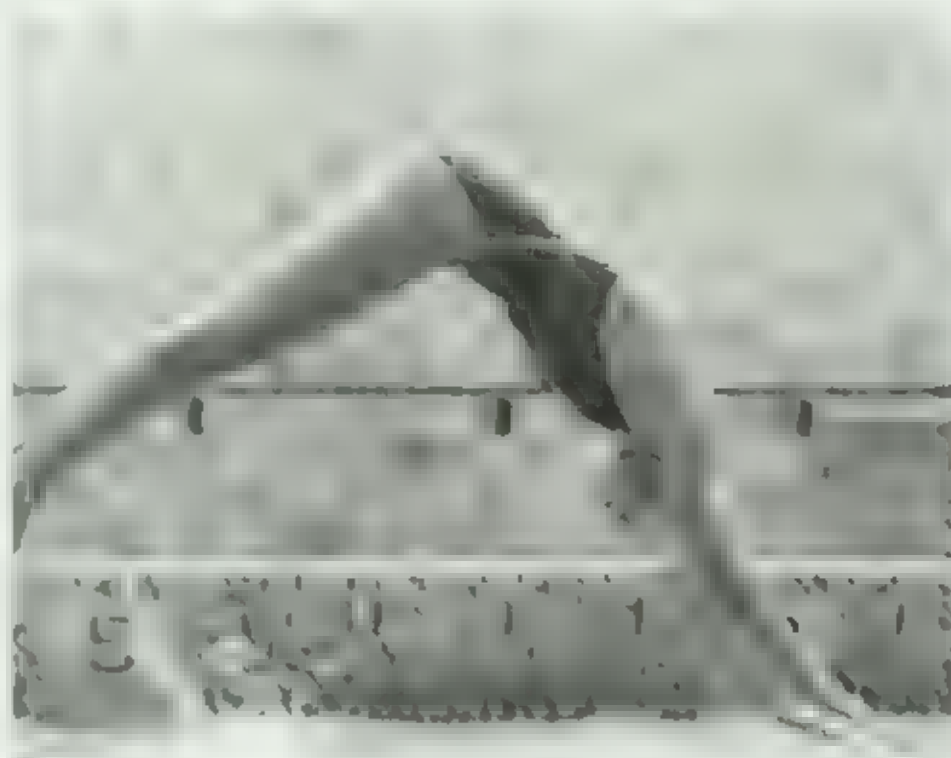

On Aug. 15 the girls' swim team started grueling practices that would last until Dec. 2. The practices usually consisted of swimming 6,500 yards, lifting weights and morning practices. This schedule helped the girls finish a powerful season with a record of 9-3-1. At Lakeview Lions Relays they placed 5th, the best finish ever against the state powerhouses.

Jenell Boodt broke a 10-year-old school record in the 100 yard breaststroke with a time of 1:13.33.

The State meet was exciting with Shelly Russell breaking her own record during prelims. She ended up placing second in both the 200 free and 500 free, but her records were broken by two other swimmers. The 400 free relay team of Russell, Michelle Rhodes, Cathy Brandt and Lisa Brandt won, smashing the state record with a time of 3:41.9. The team finished third, ahead of the conference champions, St. Joseph, who placed fourth.

The Spartans also avenged their dual meet loss to the St. Joe Bears by beating them at the first St. Joseph Invitational. The underclassmen swam terrific at the Grandville Freshman-Sophomore meet and gained the runnerup spot out of 21 teams.

Voted as Most Improved was Kristin Hedlund, named as Karl Randels Best Competitor was Michelle Rhodes, Ted Thomas Sportsmanship Award went to Linda Egland, and Shelly Russell received the Most Valuable Award. — CB

"Purple Haze" follows swim team throughout season

Led by tri-captains Max Miller, Duke Carton, and Tom Basso and by Coach Chris Harrington, the boys' swim team finished a fine season with a 10-4 record. The Tankers became Big Eight Champions for the third year in a row by scoring 71 more points than runner-up Portage Central.

Other highlights of the season include a second place finish at the Freshman-Sophomore meet. Also, going into the last event at the Battle Creek Central vs. Lakeview meet, the score was tied at 79-79. After a great effort in the 400 free relay, the Spartans came out on top with a 87-85 victory. Ending the season in a bright way, the team placed tenth at the Class B State meet.

Wrestlers tell opponents "Let's Get Physical"

The varsity wrestling team, led by senior tri-captains Darin Feasel, Nick Esselman and Mike Wilson, had a fine season, highlighted by their first place finish in the District Tournament. The team placed second in the Big Eight Conference Meet and received firsts in the Lakeview and Athens Invationals.

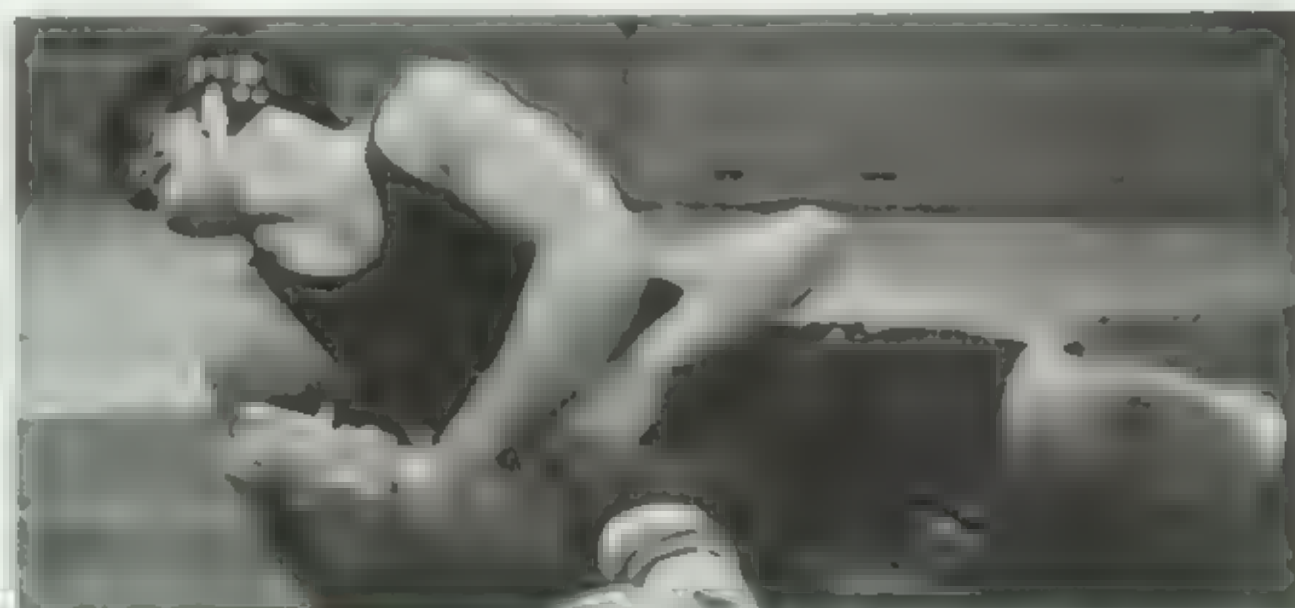

Todd Wilson, Mike Wilson, Esselman and Jerry Hepler qualified for state competition. Both Wilsons had third place finishes. Hepler's second place finish left him with a personal score of 44-3-1, falling just one victory short of the school record and tied with Todd Wilson.

Leading the Spartans to their victories was Coach Jerry Hepler, with the help of assistant Dale Traister.

The team voted Mike Wilson the Most Valuable and Brett Smith the Most Improved. The T. N. Thomas Sportsmanship Award went to Feasel and the Karl Randels Best Competitor Award to Esselman. Most Dedicated wrestler was Mike

"It's Gonna Take a Miracle"

Because of past years' financial cutbacks, the junior varsity volleyball team had only four of 14 players who had ever played competitively on a team. Despite their losing season, Coach Katrina Coats felt the team made excellent progress with all players showing great improvement. Co-captains were Ann Matyasik and Jennie Wytko. — MD

"Beat It" reigns as spikers' theme for season

The spikers culminated an excellent season with a second place finish at the Class B State Meet. Led by co-captains Ann Jereck and Julie Lundstrum, the Spartans won Districts and Regionals enroute to a 41-9 record.

Performances in tournament play compared with that of dual meets. The Spartans were runner-up in the Cereal City Classic and placed fourth at both the Pennfield and Dearborn Invitationals. At the Big Eight Conference meet, the spikers placed second behind powerhouse Portage Northern.

Chosen for the All-City and All-Region teams were Shannon Dingwall, Lundstrum, Sue Nanos and Linda Popovich. Lundstrum, Nanos and Popovich were also chosen for the All-Conference team. All-State members included Popovich (first team and Dream Team), Nanos (second team), Lundstrum (third team), and Dingwall (Honorable Mention).

"All You Need Is Love"

The girls' tennis team, led by senior captain Lauree Phelps, had a good season, winning nine out of thirteen dual meets. In the city meet, nine team members placed first and second, giving the team first place. City champions were Marika Adams and the doubles teams of Kim Bidwell-Shaun Wiler, Jean Shin-Elizabeth Winslow, and Jena Lassen-Jill Lassen. At the conference tournament, the team placed fifth. Capturing third place were the doubles teams of Bidwell-Wiler and Lassen-Lassen. The team then went on to the regionals, where Adams and the Lassen twins both placed second. The team tied for third.

Girls' track team "Can't Slow Down"

The girls' track team had a very trying season, with an overall record of 3-10 and a conference record of 2-6. Despite these setbacks, the girls still managed to improve to surprising levels and maintain a strong sense of togetherness and will to improve.

Two school records were set this year. Karen Wallace, the only one to place at state, set a new record for the 200 meter dash and Holly Grevers set a record in the discus. Wallace ran her record breaking race in 25.23 seconds. Grevers threw the discus an amazing 97'2".

Boys' track team must "Keep On Running"

Under the direction of Steve Hartwell and Steve Straub, the boys' track team had a very difficult year with only three returning seniors and nine returning juniors. Competing with all class A teams except for two, the team suffered a 2-9 season.

Even though their record may not show how good they really are, they dominated the All-City track meet for the first time in years. Cross-town rival Battle Creek Central, who usually dominates the meet, was stopped by what looked like a team with a much better record. John Haukedahl won four events to capture the athlete of the meet award. Jon Davis, Jim Wallace, Kyle Tribbett, John Emery, Charlie Thomas, Jerry Hepler and Curt Jacob had exceptional places also.

New records were set by Jim Wallace, who soared 6'5" to tie the old record in the high jump and by the two mile relay team tie with a time of 8:31.3.

The captains were Jon Davis and Joe Connor. Special awards went to Chris Judd, T. N. Thomas Sportsmanship Award; Jon Davis, Karl Randels Best Competitor; John Haukedahl, Most Valuable; and Jim Wallace, Most Improved.

"The Winner Takes It All" in the Big Eight

Under Head Coach Butch Perry, the varsity baseball team tied for the Big Eight Conference title with Niles, both with 11-3 records. Assistant Coach Tom Bommersbach says the key to the season was the way the team pulled together with the "never say die" attitude. He adds that this is the most competitive group he has ever coached and that asset kept them winning. As a whole, the team batted an outstanding .324.

Trev Clark earned All-Conference honors with his .519 conference batting average, which also allowed him to be voted Most Valuable Player and Karl Randels Best Competitor. get your facts straight

Today's world is an impatient one. Time to sort out facts — written or spoken — is extremely limited. So get 'em straight up front. Visit the library. Read. Write a report. Give a speech. Then do it again. Practice, while you still have time.

The 180 days we attend school seem to fly by. One minute it's Labor Day and the next it's Graduation. The upcoming summer may promise sunny days at the beach, driver education or college orientations. "The Song is Over" and no matter how good or bad it was the '83-'84 school year is now history. —BB
